

Patrick L. Ryan, Esq.

Patrick L. Ryan, Esq. serves as President of the Trustees of the New Jersey Clean Communities Council. Of the numerous organizations for which Pat volunteers, he feels a particular affinity for the New Jersey Clean Communities Council and has held the position of President of the Trustees since 2001. A holder of numerous awards for his contributions, Pat was honored in 2007 when he was the recipient of the New Jersey Clean Communities Robert Pellet Award for outstanding service to the organization.

He is founding Chairman of the Board and a Director of Hopewell Valley Community Bank. He earned a B.A. in history from the University of Virginia and a J.D. from the University of Virginia - School of Law. Prior to attending law school, he spent time in the U.S. Army Military Police Corps serving with the 142nd Military Police Company in Korea and the Armed Forces Police Detachment in New York City.

He is a member of the Executive Board of the Hopewell Valley Municipal Alliance, former Board Member and current member of the Advisory Committee of the Recreation Foundation of Hopewell Valley, Board Member (former chairman) of the Princeton Regional Chamber of Commerce, Board Member of the Princeton Regional Chamber of Commerce Foundation, Chairman of the Mid Jersey Chamber of Commerce's Employee Legislative Committee, Board Member of the Princeton Area Community Foundation, and a Trustee for New Jobs PAC.

Pat holds numerous other board and officer positions in a variety of state, local, business, civic and charitable organizations. His continuous involvement in these organizations for over forty years is evidence of his commitment to public and community service.